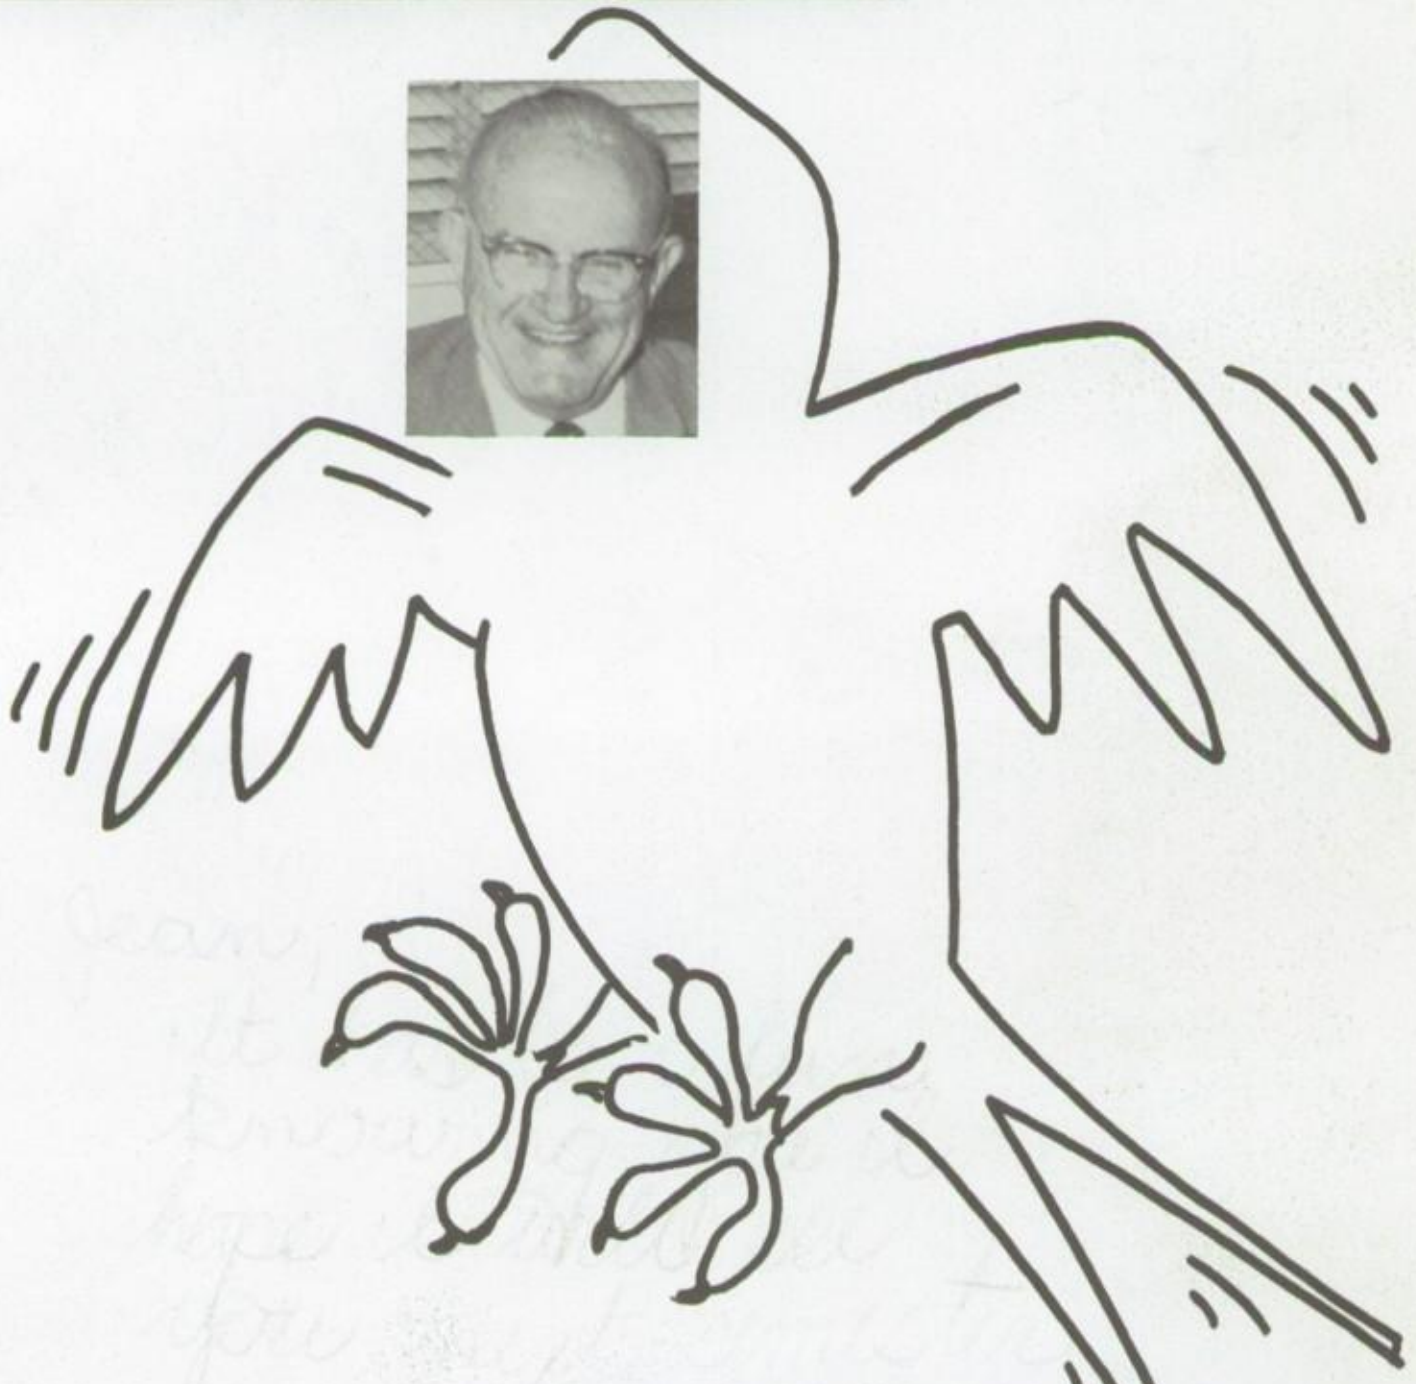
MR. ROBERT H. LEWIS, PRINCIPAL

Our Mr. Lewis can be found on the campus bright and early welcoming the new day.



He is ready for everyone with a warm smile and a "good morning". Such a greeting is found to be very contagious.

Mr. Lewis often addresses the entire Student Body over the P.A. system.

The "open-door" policy at Poly.

Has anyone let it out how Mr. Lewis has a special knack for confusing switch board operators?

Mr. Lewis has always made a point of visiting classrooms to extend a welcome to the new B-10's and a farewell to the seniors.

Mr. Lewis occasionally sits on the polygon stage during lunch to extend his greetings.

He is also present at sport events to give that added spirit.

Sometimes the principal's job becomes a little hectic.

We extend our mutual farewells. Good-bye Mr. Lewis.

Mr. James Taylor, Boys' Vice-Principal at Poly, is one of the busiest administrators in the city. He is an active leader in community life and in school life. Mr. Taylor is in charge of the athletic program, classroom supervision, and disciplinary processes. He also issues guest passes to students not attending Poly but wishing to attend one of our activities. Mr. Taylor guides and counsels students in both their school and their personal problems.

MR. JAMES B. TAYLOR
Boys' Vice-Principal

Mr. Taylor's outstanding personality helps him to accomplish his difficult job. Among some of his duties he must grant permission for the community use of Poly's facilities. It is his gift for diplomacy that makes the excellent vice-principal he is.

Miss Joan Lamb, Girls' Vice - Principal at John H. Francis Polytechnic High, plays a very important part in the functioning of our school. Her main job is to help the girls solve their present problems and to help them avoid future ones. Miss Lamb also handles the master calendar, Issues guest passes, and supervises clubs.

MISS JOAN LAMB
Girls' Vice-Principal

Miss Lamb is well known for her understanding way and her willingness to help. She is always willing to listen to the girls' problems and to help them with encouraging advice.

MRS. BLANCHE MORTON
Head Counselor

Mrs. Blanche Morton, head counselor, is in charge of establishing and arranging classes in the master program. She also works closely with the counselors to insure that every student is taking the program best suited to his needs. To further assist students, Mrs. Morton visits junior high schools and talks to future Polyites. In this way, she starts an orientation program before the students even enter Poly.

Counseling helps the individual to achieve the most from his education. Poly has an active and experienced staff of counselors headed by Mrs. Blanche Morton. The counselors' office takes care of all cumulative records, fills requests for college transcripts, and supervises report cards and programs.

Counselor's Office workers are Mrs. Dorothy Carter and Miss Maryhilda Daniels.

Mrs. Dorothy Silbaugh, school secretary, helps Poly operate smoothly. Among her many important tasks are handling school correspondence, ordering supplies, and making teacher's payrolls. Mrs. Silbaugh is also Mr. Lewis' private secretary.

Thanks to Mrs. Virginia Baygulow Poly's library is well supplied and well operated. Mrs. Baygulow's job entails reviewing, ordering, and cataloguing all publications. Another important phase of her job is scheduling classes to the library. Assisting her is Mrs. Naomi Wimberly.

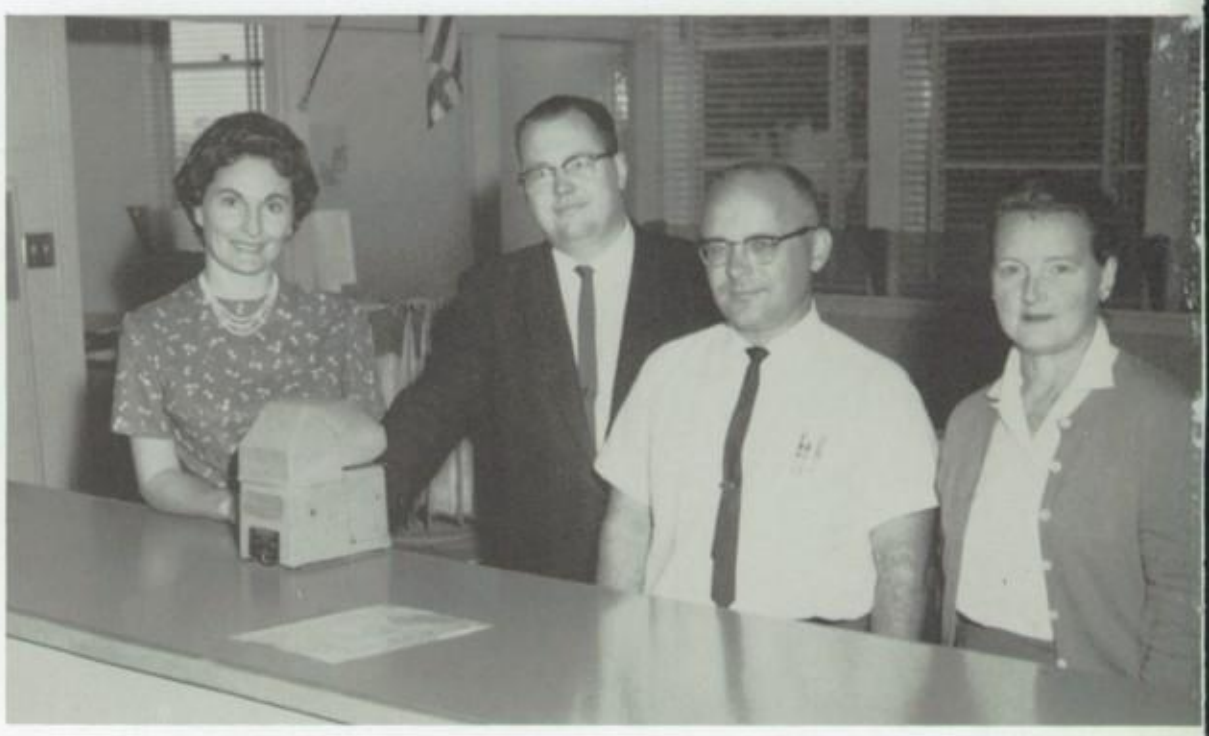
Head of the textbook room is Mrs. Vandervord. It is her job to keep individual students and class textbook records. She must also be sure that all textbooks are returned on time.

Mr. Leonard Livermont is doing an excellent job as Poly's financial manager. He makes sure that all financial matters are in proper order. It is also his job to collect and account for all money taken in at school functions. He must then distribute the money among various student body activities. Assisting him are Mrs. Elizabeth Dewees and Mrs. Maxine Stapanske.

Main Office staff includes Mrs. Betty Zotos, Miss Martha Tarr, Mrs. Dorothy Silbaugh, Mrs. Joanne Hodges.

The main office is the center of administrative and general business. It handles all communications and receives all visitors. It is also in charge of substitute teacher assignments.

The attendance office records and excuses absences and tardies. It also keeps files containing personal data on students. Besides permanent workers, the student body and the faculty give their time to assist in the attendance office before school, at nutrition, and at noon.



Attendance Office personnel includes Mrs. Roberta Paris, Mr. Don Anders, Mr. Joseph Lane, and Mrs. Jean Hill.

Health Office personnel include Mrs. Jewel Ward, school nurse, and Mrs. Francis Davidson.

Upon entrance to Poly, all students receive a general check-up by the school doctor. An annual check-up is also given for boys participating in extracurricular sports and girls participating in Drill Team activities. The health office makes sure that students who are ill do not come in contact with others. To do this, ill students are sent home and check-ups are given upon re-entry to anyone absent more than three days.

The nutritional needs of Poly's students are adequately met by our fine cafeteria staff. They prepare hot and cold foods twice a day, at nutrition and lunch. Also, whenever Poly has an extracurricular activity where food is required, the cafeteria staff provides it.

GARDENERS include Mr. Bob Lessor, head gardener; Mr. Cecil Orosco, Mr. Harry Becker.

One of the major contributions to Poly's fine looking campus is its landscaping. Poly's gardeners keep our trees, lawns and shrubs in excellent condition.

Arriving before students in the morning and leaving late in the evening, Poly's custodians keep our campus clean and our facilities in good working order. Some of their duties include cleaning the grounds, sweeping the rooms, repairing equipment, and general maintenance.

English

Department Chairman
Mr. Edward Rasky
B.A.

The English Department at Poly moves ahead. The emphasis is still on writing skills, but we also stress grammar, spelling, and literature. The academic elective program was established with the offering of English Literature. It is hoped that courses in Modern Literature, World Literature and Shakespeare will be added in the future.

A literary contest sponsored by the Journalism I class and the Optimist was a huge success. A special literary edition of the Optimist called the Parakeet included the winners of short story, essay, and poetry. The next step is a literary magazine.

The drama department did it again. An excellent production of the Heiress using theater in the round technique. Drama worked together with the music department to produce a colorful extravaganza—"Annie Get Your Gun."

Our debaters walked off with many awards and trophies. The Optimist again received acclaim as one of the largest and best newspapers in the city.

Modern business methods and the complexities of our economic system call for a sound program of business education. The business education department strives to provide this by offering an opportunity to acquire the knowledge, attitudes, and non-vocational skills needed by everyone to be successful in personal economics and to understand the American economic system. The courses offered include: General Business, Typing, Bookkeeping, Business Machines, Shorthand, Office Practice, and Sales.

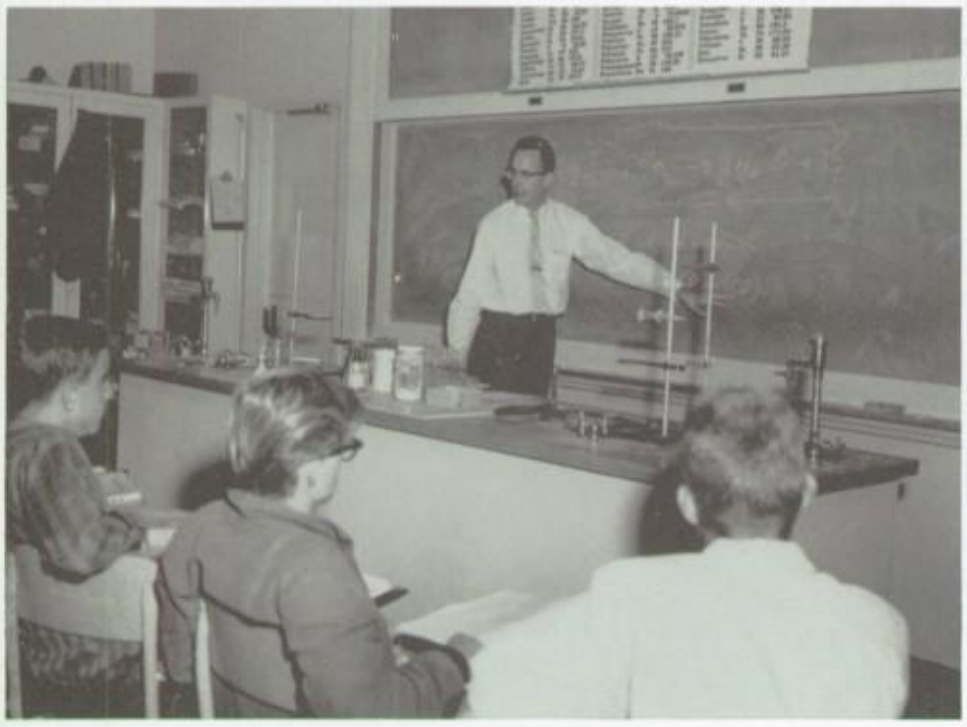
Science



Mr. Huber lecturing to his future chemists.

Poly's Science Department is unique because it is designed to be transitional in preparation for college. Not only are the offered courses prerequisites for college entrance, but they are taught in a way that responsibilities are placed on the student, not the teacher. The courses taught are Life Science I and II (academic and non-academic), Advanced Biology I and II, Physicology I and II, Modern Science I and II, Chemistry I and II, and Physics I and II.

During the period of transition from junior to senior high school many critical problems arise. These problems often cannot be solved wisely by the students alone.

The tenth grade high school guidance course is taught by the student's counselor who will be his advisor throughout high school. For this reason, Poly provides a guidance program.

Another difficult time arises during the twelfth year of school. Again, the class counselor is provided as a teacher for the twelfth grade guidance course.

The preceding guidance program is a relatively new one. Through this program we hope to produce well educated, stable American citizens.

Poly is very proud of its foreign language department. Many of our instructors are foreign born and teach their native tongue. The languages taught are Spanish, French, German, and Russian.

Here at Poly, we use the "direct conversational method." There is no English spoken in the classes. The instructors concentrate first on oral communication and then the written and grammatical structure of the language. Along with the fundamentals of the languages, the customs and cultures of the country are taught.

The Boys' Physical Education Department at Poly emphasizes physical fitness, good health, physical and neuro-muscular skills. The fall program consists of orientation program for B-10 students, football, basketball, gymnastics, soccer, weight training and wrestling, track, corrective and posture classes, skills-testing, and general conditioning. Opportunities are also provided for inter-scholastic competition in football, basketball, and cross-country. The spring program also entails orientation program for B-10 students, along with track and field, gymnastics, tennis, softball, badminton and paddle-tennis, corrective and posture classes, volleyball, skills-testing, and general conditioning. Further opportunities are again provided for inter-scholastic competition in track and field, baseball, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, and golf.

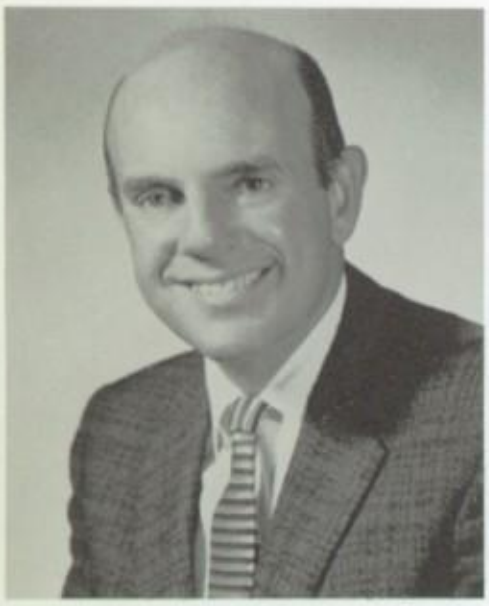
Its program includes tenth grade activities; volleyball and body mechanics, eleventh grade; hockey, tennis, bowling, golf, badminton, archery, folk and square dance. These activities are offered in six week blocks to the tenth and eleventh grades. The twelfth grade students are presented these game activities in a semester elective basis. The department also offers modern dancing to eleventh and twelfth grades. Drill team activities are available in the fall to those who qualify. All classes are required to participate in one week of First Aid training each semester.

Social Studies



Department Chairman
Mr. Gary Lipton
B.S. M.A.

Poly's Social Studies Department tries to develop in students the responsibility of actively participating in shaping the nation's future. To this end, a new course called Contemporary American Problems is taken by all seniors. Here they study psychology, sociology, economics. This rounds out their course in American History and Government so that they will graduate as well informed citizens. An elective in Current History and international relations is also offered for those who wish to concentrate on the world today.

A further extension of the art program includes the production classes in stage and art service. Our art department aids in the coordination of the other existing school departments by means of posters, bulletin board displays, and exhibits. The faculty has a diversity of backgrounds in all the phases of art and is capable of directing a vigorous program in the arts.

music

Department Chairman
Mr. George Attarian
B.A.

Poly's music department offers a wide variety of classes to meet both the performance and instrumental needs of its students.

The instrumental program has been developed under the fine direction of Mr. Gene Sherry. Our musical groups have received notable ratings in district programs and festivals.

The vocal program has also progressed. Poly is very proud of its outstanding choir, the Chanters. The Chanters have an annual half hour program on a major radio station in Los Angeles.

The music department produces music for a variety of occasions including half-time shows at the football games, an annual Christmas concert, Spring concert, and plays.

Mr. Silva lecturing to his foreign students.

The Los Angeles Board of Education chose Poly to fulfill the need of classes for foreign-speaking students. To date, we have students from Japan, Mexico, Panama, Cuba, Venezuela, France, Italy, Indonesia, Chile, and Holland. These students bring to us a representation of their culture and a better understanding of their people. The department helps to prepare the foreign students to adjust to our classes, our school, and our community.

The course was made compulsory by the State Legislature to help minimize the occurrence of driving tragedies and to stimulate safe driving practices. The course presents to the students the physical and emotional conditions as a driver, knowledge of the car and its use, and liability insurance and its necessity. The driver education program is designed to instill in each youth his individual responsibility when driving an automobile.

The Ephebian Society is a civic betterment and service organization. The membership is composed of citizens who were graduated from the Los Angeles area high schools and chosen on the basis of outstanding character, leadership in ability, high scholastic achievement, and demonstrated service.

Ephebian membership is composed of one Senior A for every forty students in each graduating class in Los Angeles. Each must have at least a B-average. The members of the Thebian class elected ten of the forty eligible candidates as finalists. The faculty vote determined the five Ephebians chosen.

Sealbearers

Ted Keener

Leonard Milstein

Mark Sobel

California Scholarship Federation Sealbearers are high school students who have been members of their school's CSF chapter for four semesters, one of which must be in their Senior year. Membership in CSF is open to all students majoring in all fields, but the scholastic requirements are high. For each semester's membership, the student must have earned at least 3 A's and one B, the equivalent of ten points, on his or her report card.

The CSF Sealbearers have the gold seal of California impressed on their high school diploma and permanent high school record. These students have earned life membership in the California Scholarship Federation. The honor is recognized at Polytechnic by a gold stole worn by Sealbearers over their graduation robes.

Deanie Hon,

Naturally I wish you luck in the A-III but I don't think it is necessary for me to wish you luck in the future as I will probably be around then. I have known you for three years and figure on knowing you for three years more and three years after that and then some.

Remember I grow on people, so your hooked with my ~~noise making~~ whether you realize it or not. If we ever come to a point where we can't even be friends your still in for it. (Remember our Parents are pretty friendly) So you see it really pays to be on really good terms with me. Think of me.

Love Always,
Spence

Senior Breakfast

On January 16, 1962 the Thebian Senior Breakfast was held in the cafetorium. After the breakfast the Thebians unveiled their plaque to the Poly student body. The plaque is in the Thebian colors—brown and beige and has the class motto inscribed on it.

Lorretta Drummond, mistress of ceremonies, explains to the guests and members of the Thebian class the meaning of the Senior Breakfast theme—Breakfast at Tiffanys.

and

The Thebian Senior Breakfast and Class Day was held from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. After the breakfast the seniors adjourned to the Polygon for the plaque ceremony and then to the Auditorium for the rest of Class Day.

Class

During the Class Day program in the Auditorium, entertainment was provided by the many talented Thebians, along with the reading of the class prophecies. Among the entertainment was the story of Aladdin and his Lamp told and portrayed by Lee Preston and Paul Runyon. As you can see Lee is the lamp.

Day

The Thebians sing the class song while the orchestra accompanies them.

farewell to the thebians

Thebians march out from Poly into the world.

We the Thebian class of winter '62
Will always pledge our loyalty and faith to you,
Might is only measured by the look above
So we'll show our strength by acts of good to all.

Always in our hearts our glorious class will shine
For in our hearts we'll know that the Thebians will climb,
While small appears our tasks to other people here
We shall carry out our unseen jobs with cheer.

When our final day at Poly High has come
To our Brown and Beige we will bid farewell,
As the days speed by our class will always be
A credit to dear Poly High.

Before I go home, I would like to thank all those people who made it possible for me to spend this wonderful year in the United States. I can truly say that it has been an experience which I will always remember.

It has been a real pleasure to attend a school such as Poly, which is so different from anything I have known before, and which seems to have gone out of its way to make me really feel at home.

The thing I enjoyed most at school was the friendliness which was prevalent, and which certainly helped me in the first few difficult days when I lost my way from Room 18 to Room 34!

In conclusion, I would just like to repeat myself and say a really big thank you.

Penny Campbell

To be 6,000 miles away from my country was, of course, quite unusual for me; but the Poly students with their friendliness and kindness made me feel really at home. I will always remember this experience and this year spent in California as the most wonderful in my life.

I will always remember the proud Parrots ruling the football and basketball games, Poly's Band, the cheerleaders, the drill team and all my friends in the school.

Meridians

Chirons

The Meridian-Chiron Field Day was held on Haney Field on Tuesday, March 20. Although it was a damp day, the spirits of both classes ran high. The Chirons came through with a tremendous victory taking four out of the five events, but the Meridians fought to the very end. The events that were held were the three legged race, won by the Chirons; the obstacle course, won by the Chirons; the girls' inner tube race, won by the Chirons; the water balloon throwing contest, won by the Chirons; and last but not least the tug-of-war contest, won by the Meridians.

She had charity and tender feelings.

Clergy

As Chuck Casey and Bob Pearce tie the ropes securely, the Athenians walk towards the flagpole followed by the Knights. In this daily ceremony each student touches the pole.

Poly's senior boys' honor-service organization finds leadership under Mr. A. Richards. The Knights raise the flag each morning in an impressive ceremony with the Athenians, their sister group.

In the past year the Knights co-sponsored the annual toy drive and the Harvest Moon Ball with the Athenians, and the two clubs painted eighty trash cans in the traditional blue and aold.

athenians

As soon as the bell rings, the flag is lowered each afternoon by the Athenians. Left to right: P. Gozawa, P. Otchis, S. Rowley, E. Cipra, B. Andrews, G. King.

Membership in the Athenians, the senior girls' honor-service organization, is awarded on the basis of school service, personality, and high scholastic achievement. Sponsored by Miss B. Decker, the Athenians lower the flag at the close of school each day, and this semester sponsored an exchange banquet with the senior honor organizations throughout the Valley.

The girls act as hostesses to school visitors, and follow their motto from the "old" Poly, "Nil Nisi Bonum" which means "Nothing if not the best."

The Ladies are the girls' lower division honor society. They provide assistance in the administration building and have successfully sponsored many school activities. Miss Marion Weinberg has had the pleasure of guiding these girls through their junior year.

Poly members of the California Scholarship Federation

The California Scholarship Federation, sponsored by Mr. Gray, opens its membership to all students who maintain 3 A's and 1 B, excluding Physical Education. This is a statewide organization consisting of various chapters in different high schools. Those students who have been in C.S.F. for 4 semesters, one in the senior year, are honored at graduation as Seal Bearers.

Dorians

The Dorians help to promote school spirit by selling booster tags before every game. The money collected is for the Student Body fund and is loaned out to the different departments. Their sponsor is Mrs. Shaw.

Poly Lettermen support their school by purchasing booster tags from the Dorians.

The Dresdens serve Poly in many ways. Their main function is selling programs at all athletic events. At football games they are also in charge of the hospitality committee, during half time. Guided by Mrs. Sheeks, the Dresdens continue to serve Poly.

Fremfro-Ja's

Members of the Fremfro-Ja's accept contributions for the Red Cross Drive.

The Fremfro-Ja's serve their school in a big way. It is their purpose to collect for such drives as the Community Chest and Red Cross. Knowing the need for social welfare, the Fremfro-Ja's have been able to fulfill their goals efficiently. Their purpose is social welfare and each girl tries to live up to their name, Gracious Ladies.

Fulfilling their service to the school as big sisters, the Junior Debs greet all students new to Poly each year. Sponsored by Miss J. Loo, the Debs present a fashion show for the community. During the Optimist sales drive the Jr. Debs sold one-third of the total subscriptions and are the proud recipients of the coveted award.

The cafetorium seems to be this student's destination.

Les Commencents

Poly's welfare organization, the Les Commencents, serve their community by making and sending slippers and other homemade goods to the needy. Mrs. M. Carr is the sponsor of this club which truly helps to make Poly the "school with the heart."

Members of the Les Commencents plan for future welfare activitie

Members of the Rigels judge Judy Worthen, the December Girl of the Month.

Assisting the Girls' League and their club sponsor, Mrs. Mariani, in selecting the Girl of the Month, the members of the Rigels fulfill their service to Poly. The Girl of the Month is chosen as an example of the appropriately dressed high school girl. The Rigels handle the nominations and judging of the contest.

Taragons

Organized as the official hostesses at Poly, the Taragon's responsibility is to serve at various luncheons, banquets, and activities sponsored at Poly. Keeping busy the Taragons continue to do a fine job. They are sponsored under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Thomas.

Taragons serve as hostesses at the Thebian senior breakfast.

Graces and Guards

The Graces and Guards represent another of Poly's fine charity groups. The members make the needed articles of clothing for the Red Cross with the helpful advice of their sponsor Mrs. B. Brandt.

The National Forensic League, coached by Mr. R. Arnold has brought many honors to Poly. Our showcases are filled with awards won in debate, extemporaneous, oratorical interpretation, impromptu, original oratory, dramatic interpretation, and humorous interpretation.

Students participating in the NFL program represent Poly in city, state and sometimes national speech tournaments. Through public speaking these students have become effective oral communicators.

Los Fiesteros

All students who speak Spanish or are enrolled in a Spanish class are eligible for membership in Los Fiesteros. Each year, with the help of Mr. P. Patino, their sponsor, the club members sponsor the Christmas Dance. From contributions from within the group, a needy family is given a complete dinner at Thanksgiving.

Les Parisians

Les Parisians are Poly's French speaking students who meet each week to learn more about French culture. Sponsored by Miss C. Frank, Les Parisians invite students new to Poly from France to their meetings and gain knowledge of modern day France.

Former Queen Jill Gordon turns over her crown to Kathy Shonka.

The Los Fiesteros presented the Winter Wonderland. The dance was held in the girls' gym and the music was played by the Gents.

An added attraction to the dance was the selection of the Queen and her court. The dance was a big success with a large turnout.

The dance floor is quite crowded and everyone looks as if they are having fun.

Harvest Moon Ball

The Thanksgiving Dance was presented by the Knights and Athenians.

Jack Martine received the door prize, a ten pound turkey. He was asked to lead off a dance with Tom Turkey by student body president, Barry Geller, but bowed out. Free pumpkin pie and cokes were given to everyone.

What's the matter Johnny? Afraid you're going to step on Jeff's feet?

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis take time out for a coke.

To pay tribute to Mr. Lewis, the Knights and Athenians presented him with a lovely desk set.

Salute to the Blue and Gold

Everyone looks like they are having a good time.

The Jr. Debs presented the "Salute to the Blue and Gold," fun night, in honor of all the athletes. The theme was completely carried through with blue and gold decorations.

Refreshments are served by Diane Ofstedahl, Sue Greer, and Betty Parkhurst.

Toy Drive

Curt Gammell, Beth Manwell, Lehua Rook, and Glenn Nolte are hidden beneath the many toys.

The Knights and Athenians sponsored the toy drive as they have done in the past years. This year one thousand sixty dollars worth of toys were collected and given to the children's division of the L.A. County Hospital.

Mrs. Shaw's winning Senior Problems Class donated seventy-five dollars toward the toy drive. As shown they are holding an auction to collect money for the drive.

Meridian Fun Night

Everyone watches anxiously to see who the winners of the twist contest will be.

Come on everybody! Let's twist.

Mr. Rasky, Meridian class sponsor, joins in the volleyball game.

The Meridians, summer class of 1962, presented the twist fun night in the cafetorium. There was a whole lotta twistin' going on with a twist contest which was won by Jill Gorden and Joe Thordson. There was a large turnout for the fun night and it was a great success.

Jill Gorden and Joe Thordson are the winners in the twist contest.

There is also slow dancing for those who do not twist.

The Poly Optimist, a 49 year old tradition at Polytechnic, found new advisorship this year under Mr. Edward Rasky. With the help of his experienced staff, Mr. Rasky brought many honors to Poly and to The Optimist through excellent publications.

The Optimist experimented with special issues on "Is Nuclear War Coming?", "Should Communism Be Taught in Schools?", "Athletics versus Scholastic Achievement," and many other subjects. They received much praise for these issues and were consequently featured in the Los Angeles Examiner.

Poly is quite proud of The Optimist, which is the largest weekly high school newspaper in Los Angeles.

"But Catherine, Morris Townsend does not love you!"

Mr. Johnson, Advisor

"The Heiress", a drama of love and betrayal by Ruthe and Agustus Goetz, was Poly's most recent centrally staged production. The play starred Karen Henderson and Bob Haley in the lead roles, with supporting actors Marilyn Davidson and Paul Runyon.

The story involves a shy, young girl who falls in love with a fortune hunter. The suave young man is after the yearly sum of $30,000 that Katherine (the Heiress) will receive upon the death of her father.

The excellent acting abilities of these prominent members of the dramatic production group, were openly displayed in "The Heiress."

The play was presented on the auditorium stage with all action taking place in front of the audience. Central staging requires that the players act casually as though the audience is not present. The actors did beautifully and received much commendation.

Morris, let's be married tonight!

"Doesn't Catherine look lovely, Austin?"

Production

"From now on we're going to be partners—Butler and Oakley."

"I'm an Indian too!"

"Annie Get Your Gun" was presented by Poly's drama department on January 11, 12, and 13. Karen Henderson and Terry Case played the heroine and hero. The rest of the cast was made up of the Choir and drama department.

The story was about a young girl who became a success in a wild west show by entering a shooting contest. She smothered the hopes of a young man by becoming the best shot in the West. They both finally entered the same match and the young man won. It turned out that the girl was in love with him all along, and she lost the match on purpose.

The show was a great success.

"It's a hit for Miss Annie Oakley!"

"I don't shoot like a girl, I shoot like a man!"

Sayonara-Thebian Dance

What happened Wally? Did ya lose your girl?

The A-11 Class presented the Sayonara-Thebians Dance in honor of the senior graduating class. With entertainment provided by the Elgins, and decorations in accordance with the Japanese theme everyone had a colorful and exciting evening.

Drill Team

In honor of our wonderful principal, Mr. Lewis, the great Poly Drill team and band form a big "LEWIS".

This year's varsity football team started its fifth season. Again heading our team was Coach Ted Calderone assisted by Coach Al Richards up from the Bees. With a nucleus of eight returning lettermen out of which six were starters from the previous season, the coaches put together a hard nosed football team which compiled a 7-1 seasonal record and a tie for first place in the East Valley only to lose the crown to the Monroe Vikings by virtue of a 1 point loss.

In the very first game of the season against the highly rated Dorsey Dons our team showed the type of football which was typical of them. The Monroe game proved to be the heartbreaker of the season as they pulled out a disputed 7-6 win over our Parrots, despite the fact that our team humbled the Vikings in every category except the scoreboard. After the bitter Monroe defeat the Spartans of Sylmar became victims of a 38-0 trouncing. L.A. High invaded L.A. Valley College in quest of a win over a second valley team, already beating Birmingham 20-0. Once more our team came through with a hard fought game beating the Romans 13-7. By this time the squad's outstanding players started to show form as linemen Mike Shaub, Larry Davis, Bill Good, and Bill Collins were being touted as all-league candidates. Our trio of halfbacks, Craig Cording, Darrell Hoover, and Al Arias by this time were already conceded honors as they were among the top in the valley in scoring and running. After the L.A. game our team traveled to North Hollywood sporting a 2-1 record. Favored by 14 points, the team completely ran away from the Huskies 39-7 to register its third win. Halfbacks Al Arias and Dave Coffman played their best games of the season running up 219 yards between them. Defending champions Van Nuys became the Parrots' next victim, this time by a score of 39-0. Halfback Archie Kelly played his best game of the season on defense, intercepting a pass and running it back 65 yards for a touchdown.

The race for the crown was supposedly decided in the next game against San Fernando. The game was widely publicized and our team was installed a 7-point underdog in the big crucial. It proved a not so close one as our team rolled up a 19-0 win over the Tigers whose explosive offense was completely bottled up by the tremendous line play of Ray Partee, Don Paonessa, Dale Barnett, and Barry Geller. The Grant High game was just an anti-climax to a fine season as our all-powerful gridders shut out a fired-up Lancer team, 31-0. For most of the players it was the last game of their high school career and for some it was their best game of the season. Fullback Craig Cording finished out a fine season scoring on the second play of the game on a 39-yard sprint up the middle and through the Grant secondary, giving him a total of 45 points for the season. Also finishing on a good note were quarterback Dave Gonzalez and halfback Al Arias as they teamed up two spectacular scoring plays of 45 and 28 yards. On both occasions Arias slipped behind the Grant secondary and Gonzalez flipped the payoff to him.

A happy finish to the whole season was the naming of Craig Cording and Darrell Hoover to the All-City team and Al Arias, Mike Schaub, Larry Davis, Bill Good, Bill Collins, and Don Paonessa to the All-Valley team. Honorable mention went to Warren Sieger, Ray Partee, Barry Geller, Skeet Rademacher and Dave Gonzalez.

Mr. Lewis enjoys another fine Poly victory.

Poly Downs Dorsey 6 to 0

Before a crowd of 4,000 people at North Hollywood High School, our mighty Parrots opened up the 1961 football season by upsetting the highly rated Dorsey Dons, by a score of 6 to 0.

Led by the determined play of Don Paonessa, Ray Partee, and Bill Collins our team put on a mighty display of defense to entirely bottle up the explosive Dorsey offense. Determination proved to play a vital part, as shown when our Parrots put up a goal line stand that saw a Dorsey drive halted in the last minute of play.

The deciding factor of the game again highlighted the defense as Darrell Hoover intercepted a Dorsey pass and streaked down the side lines for the only score of the game.

Monroe Squeaks By Poly 7-6

Under the newly dedicated lights at Monroe High School our mighty team lost its only game of the '61 campaign at the hands of the Vikings, 7 to 6.

The margin of victory proved to be a one-point conversion. Even in defeat, the team showed its awesome power as it rolled up 231 yards while our defensive line played its best game of the season by holding the Vikings to a net of 35. Playing big parts were tackles Bill Good, Dale Barnett, and end Barry Geller.

Playing his best game of the season was Quarterback Willie Arias who threw a 36-yard touchdown pass to his brother, Al Arias, for the Parrots' lone touchdown.

The heartbreaking play of the game was a 29-yard touchdown run by Fullback Craig Cording which was called back on a penalty.

Poly Stomps Sylmar 38 - 0

L. A. Valley College was the site for our Parrot's third game of the season, and the result was the first league win, a 38-0 romp over the spirited Spartans of Sylmar.

Our team struck fast as the first six minutes of play saw two touchdowns scored, the first and electrifying 60 yd. run by Al Arias. Two minutes later fullback Craig Cording smashed through the Sylmar line and sprinted 20 yards for the second score. At this time coach Calderone called off his first stringers, and in came the second unit. The second unit proved just as effective as Dave Coffman, Archie Kelly, and Bill Felix ran over, around, and through the Spartan line to run up a score of 38-0. Highlighting the second unit's assault were Dave Coffman's 25 yd. jaunt around end, and Archie Kelly's 15 yd. through the middle.

On Nov. 17 the Romans of L.A. High invaded L.A. Valley College in quest of a victory over a second valley team. Coach Calderone's fighting Varsity met the Romans, and after all had cleared the Southern league contenders had been beaten 13-7. This game marked the continuation of the oldest rivalry in the L.A. City school system, and to the Poly alumni it was a great victory.

Showing the fans and alumni that they weren't wasting any time, our Parrots took the opening kick-off and marched 48 yds. in ten plays to score the game's first touchdown. Climaxing the drive was a one yd. quarterback sneak by Dave Gonzalez. The Romans came storming back as they went 58 yds. in just seven plays to go ahead 7-6 at the half.

After a scoreless third period fullback Craig Cording climaxed a 30 yd. drive by going over from the one yd. line for the winning score. Halfback Darrell Hoover added the extra point. Outstanding for our team were Warren Sieger, Fred Radmacher, Bill Good, and backs Darrell Hoover and Craig Cording.

Poly Stops North Hollywood 39–7

John Hogan

Led by the flying feet of speedster Al Arias, Polytechnic rolled to its fourth win of the season, turning back the winless Huskies 39-7.

Arias and his hard-running teammates, Cording and Hoover, paced Poly to a fat 412 yards running and passing. The three talented Poly backs, who form one of the best backfields in the city accounted for 234 yards among them.

Arias almost matched North Hollywood's total running and passing yardage for the night by himself. While the Huskies were covering 145 yards during the game, our All-East-Valley halfback covered 132 in less than three quarters.

Bill Collins, Mike Schaub, Barry Geller, Larry Davis, Skeet Rademacher and Bill Good can take the credit for Poly's great win. They opened the holes for the Parrot backs.

Halfback Dave Coffman also showed great form going 42 yards along the east sideline to the end zone.

Poly Tromps V.N. 39-0

Once again our power-packed Parrots demonstrated their winning form, this time to the sorrow of the Van Nuys Wolves. Playing nearly flawless ball for the entire 48 minutes, the Parrots dominated the game from start to finish.

The Wolves could not stop the running of Darrell Hoover, Craig Cording, and Al Arias. Hoover ran for 125 yards and three touchdowns while carrying the pigskin only 6 times. This was by far his best game of the year. Cording and Arias each scored once and gained 143 yards on the ground between them. Archie Kelly also got in the act with a 63-yard touchdown run to round out the Parrots' scoring for the night.

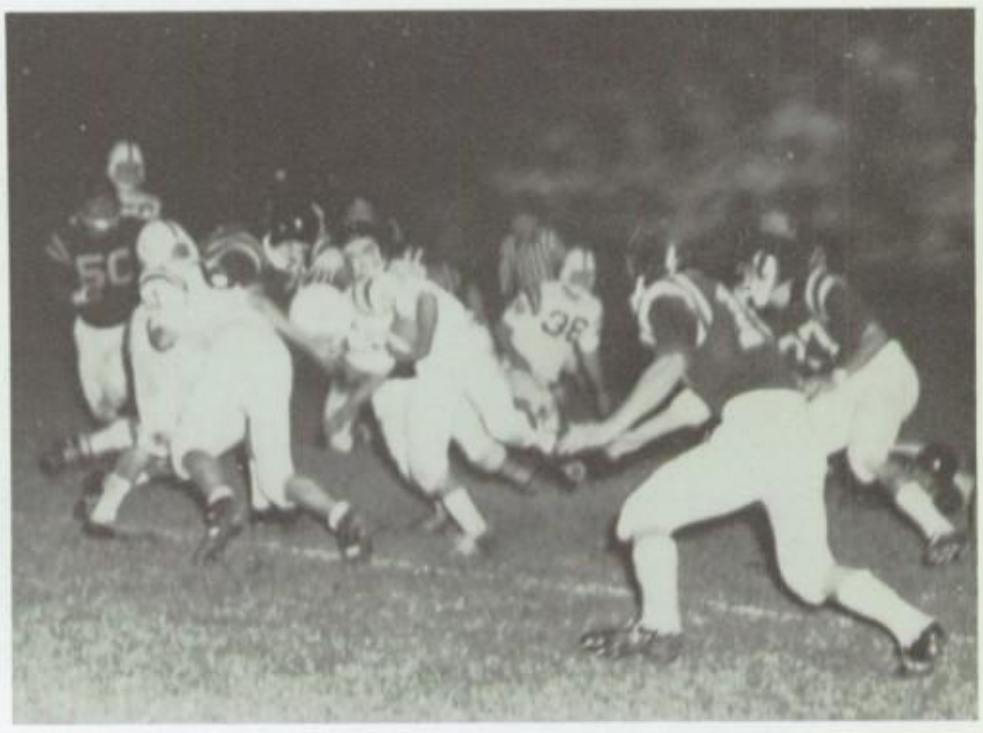
Poly put a pin in the San Fernando football bubble, flattening Orlie Schmidt's Tigers 19-0, before an overflow crowd of nearly 8,000 fans at San Fernando High. Craig Cording turned in a sensational performance.

Poly moved well against San Fernando on offense and buckled down when it had to on defense.

Darrell Hoover played an outstanding game for the Parrots, both offensively and defensively. Fred Rademacher pushed San Fernando's all-league tackle all over the field and helped to lead the way to the Parrots' great victory. But middle linebacker Don Paonessa was something to see. In fact the Tiger backs saw too much of him. After the game Coach Calderone said this was the best team he had coached in eleven years.



Al Arias finds himself in trouble as Mike Schaub tries to help out.

Look out Tigers, here comes Cording.

Poly Crushes Grant 31-0

The Parrots closed this season by clipping a stubborn Grant High eleven, 31-0, before 4,000 fans at Valley College.

Once again it was the talented backfield of Craig Cording, Al Arias, Dave Gonzalez, and Darrell Hoover which paced the Parrots' win.

Cording raced 32 yards for a touchdown and netted 93 yards from scrimmage; Arias caught passes of 44 and 29 yards for tallies; Hoover returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown and Gonzalez tossed two touchdown passes and had a 33.2 yard average for four punts.

At the end of the season everybody knew Poly was the best team in the Valley. At least Grant did.

This year's Bee football team, not given too much of a chance for a successful season, came through with a good 5-2-1 record.

With only a handful of returning lettermen, Coach Osterman and Coach Moy put together a young but spirited team led by returning lettermen Corky Garcia, Ron Bowers, and All-City "B" guard, Dan Padilla. Our team put together three league wins losing to champion Van Nuys and runner-up Monroe. Two impressive wins came over Southern League opponents, Dorsey and L.A. High.

Bright spots in the backfield were quarterback Dan Vandermuelen, fullback Ed Banales, and All-Valley backs, Steve Madsen and Richie Chirco.

For the first time Poly High School sported a "JV" football team. The team was composed of players that were too big for Bee football and too young for varsity. This enabled them to get experience for the coming season.

Only two games were played by the "JV's." The first a 27-12 defeat at the hands of Monroe, and the other an 18-0 loss to Granada Hills. Bright spots of the "JV" season were halfbacks Ron Curry, Jim Anderson and linemen Keith Rhom and Ron Steel.

The 1961-1962 basketball season was an almost perfect one for the Poly High varsity as they completed an over-all 17-1 record and at one time had a 23-game win streak.

With all-city first team member, Curt Gammell, leading the show, Poly swept through their two practice contests, 12 East Valley League matches and the first two contests of City Tournament play without a loss. After falling to City Champion Fremont in the semi-finals, Mr. Nelson Burton's spunky Parrots came back in the consolation contest of the city finals to romp over the highly touted Western League Champions, University, playing their best game of the year.

In the University cage fest, the entire varsity stood out. Gammell outscored the City Player of the Year, Tony Horton, by one point, 26-25, and Ray McCune did an excellent defensive job on Horton. Jim Corzatt, the Poly center, broken wrist and all, came down with many rebounds and helped contain Horton.

Jim Cutler came up with 10 points and proved that Poly was not a one-man show, while the other guard, Glenn Nolte, "Mr. Playmaker," set up Gammell through the game and also stood out on defense. That night was an outstanding way to end the most successful season, as far as records go, in Poly's history.

During the year, Poly had many unsung heroes . . . Robby Hall, a speedy guard who was Poly's big sixth man, Rich Ledbetter, another fine guard, Barry Silver, who played an outstanding game. The remainder of the Poly basketball team included S. Miraglia, C. Sakaguchi, A. Rammelkamp, L. Manross and J. Christensen.

Following the 1961-62 season Curt Gammell was selected as the East Valley League's player of the year, and named on the City's first team, by the official selection committee of the Helms Board. Glenn Nolte was also selected to the East Valley's first team, while Ray McCune was placed on the second squad. Such local papers as the Valley News and Green Sheet and The Valley Times named McCune to the first team.

Poly's varsity was one of the best in the city, defensively, and averaged approximately 40 points per game until the city tournament; no team scored over 45 points against the Parrots.

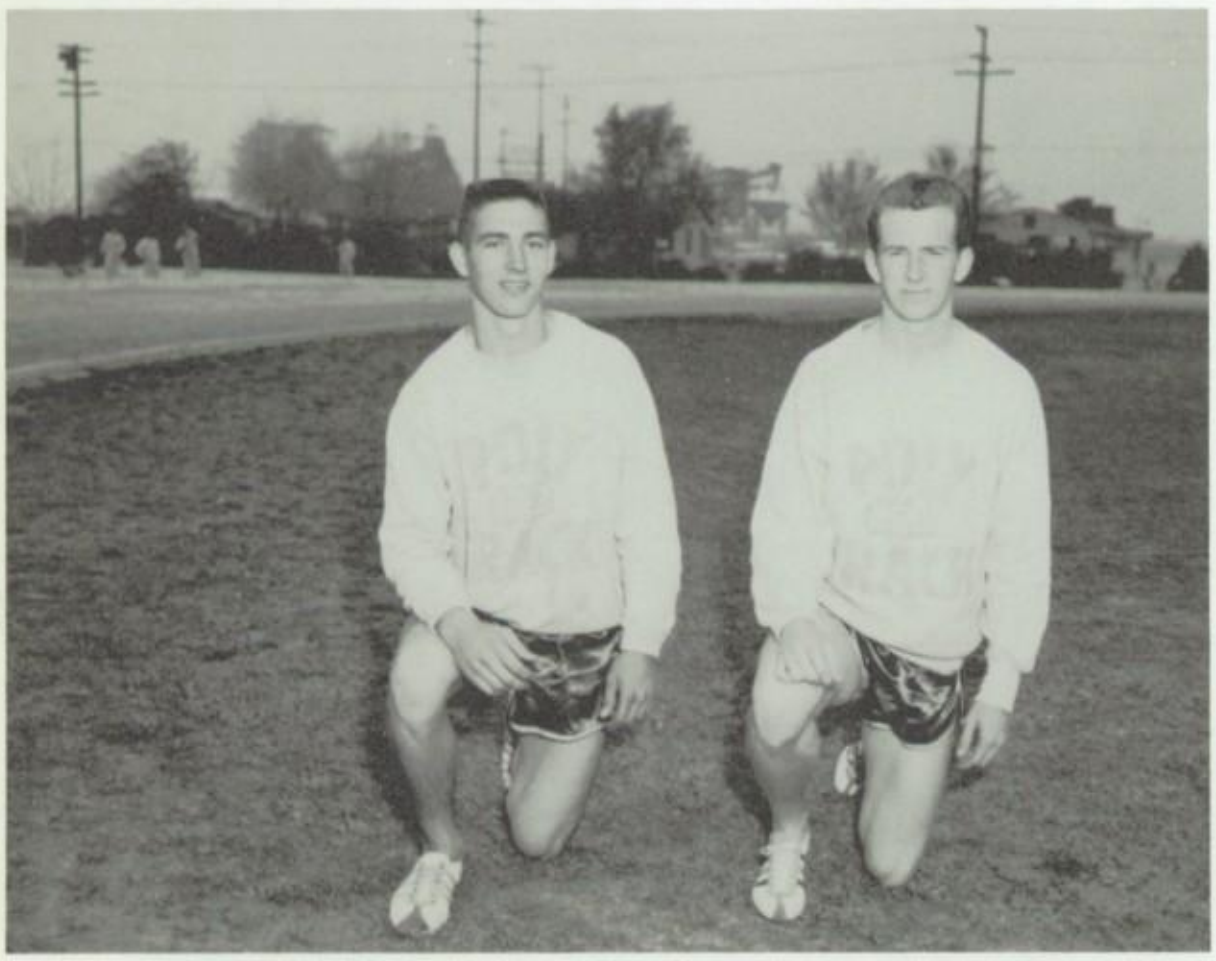
Varsity Track



Gary Barr and Dave Coffman were the Captains of the 1962 Varsity Track Team.

This season's Varsity track team has to be put down as Poly's best ever. Picked as underdogs for the first three meets Poly fought back with flying colors downing Birmingham, Van Nuys, Sylmar, and Monroe right in a row. The Monroe meet has to go down as the most exciting meet of the year. Poly downed Monroe by one point and three inches.

Led by such outstanding athletes as Gary Barr in the shot put, Ray Smith in the high jump, Larry Jackson in the 100 and 200, Eric Winston in the 880, Ken Kohon in the mile, Dave Coffman in the 440, and Fred Hegge in the pole vault; Poly could do no worse than second in the East Valley League.

School records fell everywhere. Eric Winston broke the 880 record, Gary Barr, the Shot Put record, and Fred Hegge the Pole Vault.

Hugh Freeman was a big gun in the broad jump and hurdles as was Joe Minichello in the 100 and 220. This team was so great it is really hard to mention everybody that brought glory to the Blue and Gold.

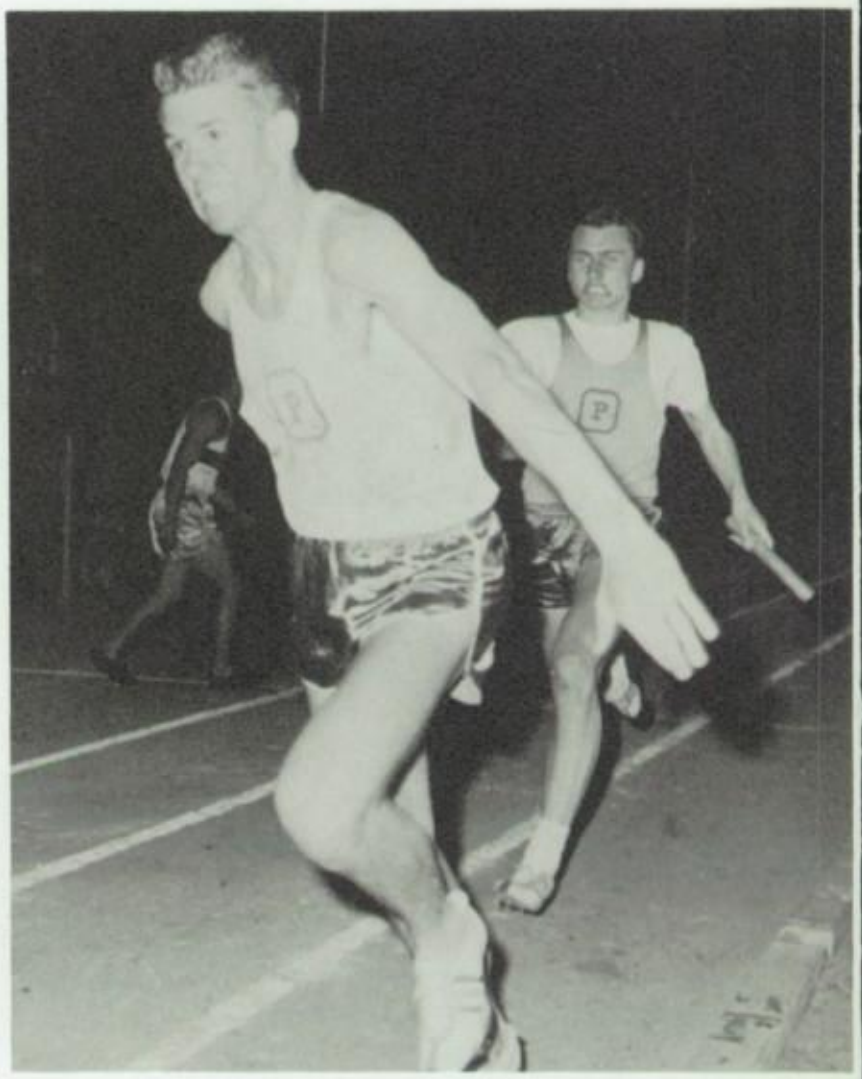
440—Sam Duncan, Pete Stang and Robert Lewis.

Frank Guzman is seen being helped by his Poly team mates after giving his all, in the Monroe Meet.



Pete Stang hands off to Eric Winston in one leg of the eight-man mile relay.

Mile—Frank Guzman and Ken Kohon.

Mile

Ken Kohon wins with ease as Frank Guzmon placed second in Monroe Meet.

880—Bazurto, McClure, Guzman and Winston.

880

Eric Winston sets 880 record against Monroe.

Low Hurdles—Hugh Freeman, Calvin Sakaguchi, and Rick Morris.

Mac Jones edges Al Arias for first place in 120 low hurdles.

Hugh Freeman picks up first place against Monroe.

B's Strive for Victory

Here is Poly's "B" 1962 Relay Team: Herb Haas, Bob Bilodeau, Rich Margo, Jim Evans, and Al Arias.

Poly's "B" track team had things rough this season with hardly any returning lettermen. However, they finally got things going right half way through the season.

The team was led by Herb Haas in the 100 and 220, MacJones, Al Arias, and Danny Hoover in the hurdles. The field events were pretty strong, too, with MacJones once again leading the way in the broad jump. Dee Krane, in the high jump, and Marty Hertz in the Shot Put.

"C" Track

Here is Poly's "C" 1962 Relay Team: Greenhalgh, Madson, Omura, and Ginsburg.

Our "C" team was a much improved team over last year's. Coach Vardanian received a fine group of 10th graders. The team was led by Madson in the 100, Ginsburg in the 180, Keane in the 660 and McConville in the 1320.

Row 1, l to r: Pangan, Mecka, Phillips, Waters, H. Nishimura, Keane, Salzman, Okita, T. Nishimura, Gugas, Frank, Greenhalgh. Row 2: Roberts, Andl, Esterline, Aguilar, Ginsburg, Morrison, Omura, McConville, Acosta, Guinane, Levin, Hard. Row 3: Coach Vardanian, Boothe, Cohen, Swan, Jewett, Young, Coakley, Medellin, Firestone, Ysais, Madsen, Johnson, Rothans, Seeman, Padden, Coach Windham.

Row 1, l to r: J. Colianno, C. Nelson, R. Bowers, J. Mantonya, W. Arias, A. Arias, J. Langley, A. Mendoza, K. Weitzel. Row 2: J. Archuleta, W. Safechuck, G. Castonguay, M. Sommers, D. Vandermeulen, M. Hornyak, B. Waller, J. Goldstein, B. Belskin, Coach Osterman.

"V" Baseball

This year our varsity baseball team was left with only one returning letterman. This was to be a rebuilding year for the Poly Parrots. However, Coach Osterman put together a well-balanced team. They opened the season with a 2 to 0 victory over Monroe. Mike Sommers started things off great by pitching a three hitter.

Joe Archuleta, Bill Belskin, John Langley, Joe Colianno, and Willie Arias started the infield for the Parrots. Wayne Safechuck, Al Arias and Ray Collins started the outfield. Jerry Mantonya, Burford Waller, Ken Weitzel, and Mike Sommers took their turn on the mound.

As the season progressed it looked as if it would be a tight finish between San Fernando, North Hollywood, Van Nuys, and Poly.

J.V. Baseball

Coach Burton discusses game problems with Terry Segraves.

This year our Junior Varsity opened the season with two great wins. This team had great spirit and a fine will to win. Terry Segraves was elected captain of the team. Coach Burton put together a fine first team led by Sam Moreno, Rich Chirco, Lin Zuckerman, and Dan Slogh. We feel that this team will bring home the East Valley Championship.

Row 1, l to r: Coach Calderone, B. Grigsby, J. Gates, G. Foshee, B. Russell, C. Teeter, M. Rast, S. Watson, J. Douglass, G. Grossman, T. Boren. Row 2: W. Franke, C. Casey, J. Magginetti, F. Ramos, A. This year our gymnasts hope to take the East Valley League title for the second year in succession. Led by 16 returning lettermen and the fine coaching of Ted Calderone, our team opened the season by defeating the (7-6) Monroe Vikings by a grand margin of 102-18.

This year our Varsity Swim team led by Ken Merten and Mike Wood were forced to defend the East Valley championship with only two returning lettermen. However, they started the season with two great wins over Monroe and Sylmar. North Hollywood was to be their stiffest test. Coach Richards has put together a fine swimming team; we know Poly will be proud of their boys as the season closes.
